

Dearbhla McCarthy

From: Grattan Healy [grattan_healy@compuserve.com]
Sent: 25 September 2009 13:25
To: Brid O'Donovan
Cc: Thomas W Cooke; Pat Blount; Paul McSweeney
Subject: CONTESTABILITY

Dear Brid,

Thanks for the bit of extra time. I have studied the IWEA submission, and broadly endorse its contents. I can safely say that Meitheal na Gaoithe would agree, as would the company I participate in, Fuinneamh Sceirde Teoranta.

Thanks,

--

Grattan Healy BEmech MBA,
Energy Adviser, Board Member SEI,
Teach Mór Thiar,
Indreabhán,
County Galway,
Republic of Ireland.
t/f +353 (0)91 593236
m +353 (0)87 9363348
e (public) grattan_healy@compuserve.com

>>Two planets meet in space. One looks ill and complains of having contracted homo sapiens. The other, bursting with health, replies: 'Don't worry my friend. I had the same illness, but it went away entirely of its own accord.'<<
'Manifesto for the Earth', Mikhail Gorbachev, page 42.