

Response from:

Irish Liquefied Petroleum Gas Association Limited

CER Consultation Paper - Scope of Works for LPG

Document Reference: CER / 11/022

Published Date: 03 February 2011

| Questions/ Proposals | Yes | No | Comments |
|---|-------------------------------------|------------------|---|
| Q1. Do you agree with the proposed definitions in Section 3.2 for; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Domestic Customers (fixed and mobile) - Commercial Customers (fixed and mobile) - Industrial Customers | Yes Yes | No | The ILPGA proposes changes to: Section 3.2.1 To also include appliances which predate the introduction of the GAD Section 3.2.1.1 To read (e.g. gas cooking appliances connected to an LPG cylinder by mean of fixed metallic pipework) |
| Q2. Do you agree with the CER's analysis of the policy considerations in Section 4 ? | Yes | | |
| Q3. Do you agree with the CER's proposals set out in Section 5? Option A: Minimum Scope of Gas Works with respect to Domestic LPG Customers | | No | Section 5.1 Add : the welding of pipework prior to admission of gas, to the exemption list |

| | | | |
|--|------------|--|--|
| Option B: Intermediate Scope of Gas Works with respect to Commercial LPG Customers | Yes | | The ILPGA agrees with the CER's proposal to include Commercial Gas Works within the scope of the regulations, but not until such time as the conditions set out in a. b. and c. of section 5.2 exist |
| Option C: Maximum Scope of Gas Works with respect to Industrial LPG Customers | Yes | | The ILPGA agrees with the CER's analysis and proposal not to include Industrial Gas Works within the scope of the regulations |
| | | | |

Liam Doyle
 Secretary
 Irish Liquefied Petroleum Gas
 Association Limited
 Tel: 353 1 2819246
 Mob: 353 87 2559577
liam.doyle@calorgas.ie

03/ 03/ 2011