

[REDACTED]

From:

Sent:

[REDACTED]
19 May 2014 17:27

To:

watertariff

Subject:

Domestic Water Tariff Principles and Proposals

I am a resident of Belgooly Village and the water quality currently has a high concentration of iron, Manganese and a high level of hardness (300-400 ppm). I would believe that the water quality is not fit for purpose.

I would like to ask the regulator that my household and households in my village with hard water be given a waiver in relation to the payment of water charges.

Kind Regards,

[REDACTED]