

Dear sir or madam,

I believe the proposed rise in the PSO levy is wrong and will only add to the problem of energy poverty. The subsidy currently given to the wind industry does nothing to increase our energy security, doesn't meaningfully address our emissions targets and has untold negative effects on both people and our environment.

To consider increasing the subsidy to the failed wind industry is not justifiable.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Grace